GRAND LODGE AMERICANISM ESSAY CONTEST 2010 – 2011

“Why I am Proud to be an American”

I am pleased to announce that the Members of the G/L Americanism Committee have selected the theme, “Why I am Proud to be an American,” for the 2010-2011 Grand Lodge Americanism Essay Contest. The essay contest starts with the Subordinate Lodges, progresses through District and State levels, and ends with the national winners. This very important Patriotic Contest gives school children in grades 5-8 the opportunity to express views on their pride in America.

On the national level, first-place winners in each division will receive a $1,000 U.S. Savings Bond. Second-place winners receive a $500 bond, and third-place winners receive a $250 bond. The Lodge that sponsors a national winner will be presented with a beautiful engraved plaque at the Grand Lodge Convention. Many Lodges, District and State Associations also offer different types of awards to their winners.

Now is the time for all Lodges to contact their local school districts and provide them with the new topic and ask them to add the essay contest to their fall curriculum. Additional information on the contest will be found on the GL Web site and in the 2010-2011 supplement to the Americanism Manual shortly after the Grand Lodge Convention in Orlando. This information will also be mailed to all Exalted Rulers.

This is a most important contest because it involves school children in your area in Americanism at its best and shows that the Members of your Lodge are proud to be Americans, proud to be Elks and proud to participate in the Americanism programs of the Grand Lodge. Your G/L Americanism Committee is committed to serving you and assisting you as we all show pride in America.

May God continue to bless America. God bless the Elks and may God bless each of you.
