

Summer Reading Choice Book Assessment 9th Grade

Name: _____ Date: _____

Current English Teacher: _____

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____

Directions: The following form is intended to assess how engaged you were in your summer reading assignment as well as to give your teachers an early look at your current reading skills. It is designed to be completed in class and will be included as part of your Q1 grade. Fill out the following form as completely and as accurately as possible. Your response will be graded using the Weymouth High School Strategic Reading Rubric.

Part One: Identification of Purpose

Identify the genre . Examples include: drama, science fiction, comedy, horror, historical fiction, biography, etc.
Identify the author's purpose in writing this particular book.
Identify the intended audience of this book. Explain your response.

Part Two: Comprehension

Accurately identify two central ideas or themes of the book, and summarize key supporting details in support of those ideas or themes.

Central idea or theme #1:

Details and ideas that support the first central idea or theme:

Central idea or theme #2:

Details and ideas that support the second central idea or theme:

Part Three: Critical Insight

Identify the point of view. For example: Third person omniscient, third person limited omniscience, third person objective limitation, first person major, first person minor.
Explain how the point of view, the purpose, or the narrative structure shape the content and style of the book.

Part Four: Application of the Reading

Use the space below to identify and explain any connections you can make between this book and another book you have read, or between this book and some story or occurrence from the world around you. Try to make multiple connections if possible.