

Introducing Weymouth Public Schools

Richard Bransfield EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

Richard Bransfield, Executive Director of Elementary Education,

has been an educator for 38 years. Mr. Bransfield was a middle school Assistant Principal for 5 years, a K-8 Principal for 8 years, a member of the administrative team in Weymouth for the last 3 years, and most recently Principal of the Ralph Talbot and Wessagusset Schools. Prior to coming to Weymouth, he created the City of Malden's first Innovation School as designated by DESE. The Linden STEAM Academy was a level I school reported on by the Boston Globe and the Hechinger Report for STEAM programming, and visited by school leaders from around the world. He is a Malden High School graduate and was inducted into the Malden High School Hall of Fame as both a coach and an athlete.

More About Richard Bransfield:

Rich lives on the North Shore with his wife of 34 years, Sandra, an administrative assistant in the Tewksbury Public School System. He is the father of two children; Briana, a successful small business owner of a dog groomer and trainer business, and Timothy who is a renowned artist and Savannah College of Art and Design graduate known as "TimmySneaks".

 @TimmySneaks

Professional Background:

- Principal- Ralph Talbot and Wessagusset Elementary Schools
- Principal- Linden STEAM Academy, Malden
- Assistant Principal- Beebe School, Malden

Education:

- Master of Education- Boston University
- Bachelor of Science- Norwich University
- Graduate of the National Institute of School Leadership (NISL)

