

chartwells
eat. learn. live.

Prior Year Success Stories

- Introduced “Polar Beverages” to the high school and middle schools
- New snack area at Adams school
- Nash and Seach schools now have Tower gardens.
- Introduced our first garden club at Seach school
- Now serving breakfast on half days
- All Primary staff are Food Handling certified

Heading into 2019...

- Introducing New Director Elizabeth Sauro
- Monthly nutrient education with Kelsey Massis (Weymouth's Registered Dietician)
- Nutrition/wellness initiatives – taste testing's, monthly newsletters & café promotions, celebrated National Nutrition Month, health classroom recipe modification project
- Increased marketing at all schools

Elizabeth Sauro

- Food service Director in Randolph for 7 years
- Food service experience for over 10 years with K12 students
- Compass Group employee for over 20 years
- Current School Nutrition Association Member for 4 years
- Johnson and Wales University- Degree in Culinary Arts

Results this year (August-December)

- Café sales up $55, 000 up from prior year
- Participation rates up at all schools from prior year
- Product costs down 1% from prior year
- Increased marketing at all schools

