

Introducing Weymouth Public Schools

Superintendent Robert Wargo

Robert Wargo

Superintendent of Weymouth Public Schools

has worked in a number of districts and held an array of positions in education, most recently as the Assistant Superintendent of Instructional Services and Support for Weymouth Public Schools. He has worked with students at all different levels, and has had the opportunity to participate in many school initiatives from athletics, to diversity, equity and inclusion, to instruction and learning. Superintendent Wargo believes "Wildcat Pride" is infectious, and strives to build upon the existing energy, optimism, and momentum to take Weymouth Public Schools to its maximum potential.

More About Superintendent Wargo:

Superintendent Wargo takes his role and responsibilities as Superintendent very seriously, but he prides himself on not taking himself too seriously. In his spare time he enjoys cooking.

Professional Background:

- Assistant Superintendent of Instructional Services and Support | Weymouth Public Schools
- Principal | Scituate High School
- Principal | King Philip Regional High School
- Assistant Principal | King Philip Regional High School

Education:

- Northeastern University | M.Ed. School Counseling
- University of Maryland | B.A. General Studies, Concentration in Counseling

